

PART A

REGIONAL MARITIME UNIVERSITY

RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE ISSUANCE OF SCHOLARSHIPS

1. The scholarship committee reserves the right to review or cancel awards due to changes in financial standing, academic and programme status;
2. All scholarship students must be in good standing with the disciplinary committee in the case of continuing students
3. All awards are tentative and subject to legislative or statutory appropriation, final verification of academic records and acceptance to the University
4. Full-time enrollment in a regular diploma or top-up degree programme is required.
  - a. For undergraduate students, the scholarship applicant must enter the institution with a grade of at most:
    - An aggregate of 9 – for SSSCE candidates applying for degree programs
    - An aggregate of 10 – for WASSCE candidates applying for a degree programmes
    - An aggregate of 12 – for students wishing to enrol in Diploma programmes
    - A distinction for Diploma students wishing to be enrolled for a top-up degree programmes
    - NACO
    - International Baccalaureate (IB) with a minimum note of 10/20 in each of the relevant subjects
  - b. For continuing undergraduate students, the requirement is that they should have a First Class Cumulative or a CGPA of 3.6 and above in their undergraduate course to be considered for a scholarship.
5. Completing all assigned and registered credit hours in the chosen programme is essential if the renewal or re-application of the scholarship is to be sought.
6. Scholarship recipients must maintain the required Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA). Grades are subject to review on a semester-by-semester basis. For undergraduate programmes, any scholarship recipient earning a CGPA less than 3.6 means the candidate forfeits the scholarship.
7. Appeal of scholarship termination might be permitted in some instances. These cases include those for whom the drop in grade points might have been caused by certain justifying circumstances, such as an illness that prevented the student from taking an exam. In all such cases, documentation and the appropriate certification will be sought. The scholarship committee reserves a discretionary right in all such matters.
8. Students receiving scholarship awards who withdraw from the university must notify the scholarship committee.
